Sir,

Sub: e-SCR portal-Availability of Supreme Court and High Court Judgments in English and regional languages - reg.

Ref: Letter No. HCKL/1105/2023-IT3 dated 21/12/2024 from the Registrar (Computerization)-cum-Director (IT), High Court of

Kerala.(Copy enclosed)

I am to invite your attention to the reference cited and to inform you that the Registrar (Computerization)-cum-Director (IT), as per the letter cited above have informed that the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India had launched the e-SCR Portal, a web portal which provides free access to the reportable Judgments of the Supreme Court and the High Courts to lawyers, law students and the common public in English as well as regional languages. The most important feature of this portal is a free text search engine, which finds out Judgments based on a given keyword or combination of keywords.

The search facility in e-SCR portal provides for free text search, search within search, case type and case year search, judge search, year and volume search and bench strength search options. Combination of any of the search criteria can be used to filter results. The embedded filtering feature allows further filtering on available results, thus adding value to the search. The e-SCR Free Judgment Search Portal is a valuable resource for accessing judgments and orders from various Indian High Courts. The URL for accessing the e-SCR portal is <https://judgments.ecourts.gov.in/>.

In the circumstances, you are requested to take necessary action to compile and upload relevant judgments on your respective websites in English and the regional language, in compliance with the directions of the Hon'ble Supreme Court.

Yours Faithfully,
RETTY P THOMAS
UNDER SECRETARY
For Secretary to Government.

Sir,

Sub:- Availability of Supreme Court and High Court Judgments in English and regional languages – e-SCR portal - reg.

I am to inform you that the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India had launched the e-SCR Portal, a web portal which provides free access to the reportable Judgments of the Supreme Court and the High Courts to lawyers, law students and the common public in English as well as regional languages. The most important feature of this portal is a free text search engine, which finds out Judgments based on a given keyword or combination of keywords.

The search facility in e-SCR portal provides for free text search, search within search, case type and case year search, judge search, year and volume search and bench strength search options. Combination of any of the search criteria can be used to filter results. The embedded filtering feature allows further filtering on available results, thus adding value to the search. The e-SCR Free Judgment Search Portal is a valuable resource for accessing judgments and orders from various Indian High Courts. The URL for accessing the e-SCR portal is <https://judgments.ecourts.gov.in/>

The Supreme Court of India had directed the High Court to take steps to inform the Government Departments and Law Colleges in the State regarding the availability of the Supreme Court and High Court Judgments in the above said portal. It is also directed to suggest the State Government to compile Judgments relating to the Departments and upload the same in the respective Department website in English as well as regional languages and also to organise continuing legal education for the Officers.

Accordingly, the above direction/information from the Apex Court is forwarded for favour of information and necessary action.

Yours faithfully,

Signed by
